

AGM 5th May 2022. 7.20pm start.

1. The Constitution (found on the Village Web page) was approved with no change.
2. The Treasurer's audited financial statement was accepted unanimously
3. Subscription. The Treasurer requested an increase in the entry charges to the meetings to help cover the costs of the speakers which are now costing more.
It was put to members, and it was agreed to change entry to members £4 and visitors £5. This was agreed unanimously.
4. Secretaries report was read out .....

Let us look forward to the coming year.

5. The Chairman then read her statement.....
First, I would like to thank all you members who have supported the club over the last year and for the hard-working committee members.
As you heard we have managed a fair bit through the year although Zoom meetings are not for everyone, I think we have hopefully seen the last of them!
We hope you like the look of our forthcoming varied Programme and visits.
We will be having a new sponsor for the three village entrance tubs, Lisa Parmley, mortgage broker. You will see the signs change shortly. We would like to thank Hiscock Engineers (Trowbridge) Ltd. who have kindly sponsored the tubs over the last three years. Thank you to Jan, Edward, and Jacky for maintaining them.
We also look forward to our new social media ideas that one of our newer members, Tabitha, is going to organise for us, so watch this space to be informed.
I would now like to present Jan Richardson who is standing down from the committee with a plant for all her sterling work done on the committee especially as secretary.
6. Election of the Committee.
With no new committee members wishing to come forward at this time, the existing committee including Jackie Pike who was co-opted on during the year, were re-elected en bloc: Edward Callaway, David Green, Jacky Hiscock, Angeline Nicholson, Lyn Pennington, Jackie Pike.

The AGM closed at 7.40pm.
